

Activity report

Given below is a heatmap of the coordinates of the trucks and people. It provides a good visual understanding of where most of the work is going on.

Here are some more plots on when objects (people or machinery) are entering and leaving the site. This will provide some more insights.

Continuous 3D Histogram of People and Trucks at Construction Sites

